Title: MDHHS to offer webinars on final stage of COVID-19 public health emergency response

Posting date: May 10, 2022

The Michigan Department of Health and Human Services recently issued an invitation* to a series of virtual, informational seminars for providers and community partners to discuss preparations for the eventual end of the federal COVID-19 public health emergency.

These virtual sessions intend to offer guidance and will:

- Refresh providers and community partners about the public health emergency and actions MDHHS is taking to unwind from it – including communication strategies and next steps.
- Gather feedback from attendees on additional toolkit creation and resources.

MDHHS is offering three 90-minute sessions, but availability is limited and the first two are already full. As of posting date, the June 7, 2022 meeting is the only one still open for registration. If you're interested in participating, select the link below to register.

- June 7, 2022, 1:30 p.m. to 3:00 p.m.
 - [Click here \[lnks.gd\]](#)* to register or directly at: <https://somedhhs.adobeconnect.com/ek8osvtgacmu/event/registration.html> [\[lnks.gd\]](#)*

A confirmation email with a meeting link will be sent to the email address used to register. For questions or problems with registration, email MDHHS at ProviderOutreach@Michigan.gov. For additional questions, contact MDHHS Provider Support at ProviderSupport@Michigan.gov or call 1-800-292-2550.
