

Reminder - Medical Record Review Projects

HAP partners with vendors to conduct medical record reviews. They contact offices directly and provide the review details, including due dates and submission requirements.

The tables below outline our current and upcoming medical record review projects. All reviews are conducted by our vendor, Change Healthcare, unless otherwise noted. Provider offices could be contacted more than once due to different regulatory projects, dates of service, and membership.

Medical Record Reviews

Frequently Asked Questions

1. How many medical review projects do you have?

We currently have four projects remaining this year, from 2023 through first quarter 2024.

2. Are there more reviews this year?

The Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services extended the final risk adjustment data submission deadline from January 31, 2023 to July 31, 2023 for payment year 2022. As a result, we have conducted a chart review collection targeting 2021 dates of service from October 2022- July 2023.

3. Who conducts the reviews?

HAP partners with the vendors below.

Vendor	Medical Record Review Project
Change Healthcare	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Commercial Risk Adjustment• Medicare Risk Adjustment• HEDIS/NCQA
Cognisight	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Commercial Risk Adjustment Data Validation (RADV) Audit

4. How do we know if we are part of the medical record review?

Vendors will contact provider offices by letter. It will include:

- List of members required for review
- Due date
- Submission requirements

If you are not contacted, there is nothing you need to do.

5. Do we have to comply with these reviews?

Yes. Per your HAP contract and HAP policy, failure to respond to these requests is subject to potential recovery of paid claims. We appreciate your cooperation. We will work with you to minimize disruptions in patient care activities.
